The Critic as Artist

Oscar Wilde 1854-1900 was an Irish poet and playwright who became one of London’s most popular writers in the early 1890s. Graduating from Trinity College Dublin and later Magdalen College Oxford, Wilde embarked on a hugely successful lecture tour of America in 1882. Not just anyone makes a good pisser.

'Chardin And Rembrandt' by Marcel Proust Paperback Barnes

May 22nd, 2020 - Long overlooked in Proust's posthumously published writings, Chardin and Rembrandt written when he was only twenty-four years old not only reemphasizes the importance of visual art to his development but contains the seeds of his later work proposed in 1895 by Proust to the newspaper Revue Hebdomadaire. It was rejected. This essay is much more than a straightforward piece of art criticism.

The Ekphrasis Series is dedicated to publishing rare out of print and newly missioned texts as accessible paperback volumes. It is part of David Zwirner Books' ongoing effort to publish new and surprising pieces of writing on visual culture.
