May 17th, 2020 - This book is a very good thorough biography of Collins and history of Ireland during an amazing period. I think though I would have preferred beginning with a less detailed account of Michael Collins' life because I have found myself somewhat confused at points by the many characters treaties and events included here.

collins was a founder of the irish free state much of his work helped to secure independence from great britain for most of ireland early life and inspiration.
